Sunday Night Sessions and Activities

Run for It: Your Guide to Becoming a State Officer

Are you looking to run for state office or are curious about the process? This workshop serves as a guide for running as a state officer candidate. We will go through the steps of applying, campaigning, and discuss the election process. You will have a clearer understanding of what officers do behind the scenes and why you should want to be a candidate after this session.

Lighting a Torch- Information on the BPA Torch Award System

In this workshop we will be taking a closer look at what Torch Awards are, how to record your points, and the meaning behind why we do Torch Awards.

Engage in Service Leadership Activities

Relax with other members with some fun games and refreshments.

Main Event- Monday

Secure Your Dream Career

This year the Post-secondary Officer Team is trying something new! A panel of HR representatives will be coming in and going over our members resumes as well as hosting mock interviews. Please have your members bring along their resumes to the Fall Leadership Conference to ensure that they can participate in this activity to the best of their ability! The Post-secondary Officer Team will announce the panel members in the next few weeks, so be sure to keep your eyes open for that.

Mini Sessions

Talk the Walk

Communicating with people is something that we do everyday, whether it be with our friends, coworkers, or family, it's something that we need. Have you ever stopped to think about what goes into being a good communicator? In Talk the Walk, we will dive deeper into how being a good communicator can help you in your career, in a team setting, and in your relationships with others. Are you excited to Talk the Walk?

The Power of Personal Branding

Your personal brand is more than your resume. It is the impression you leave for your peers. During this session you will uncover key elements to your personal branding and walk away with a defined version of yourself. Whether you're building a career, running for state office, or just figuring out your next move, this session will help you show up with confidence in your brand.

Competitive Event Showcase

Get a glimpse of tips on choosing and preparing for your State Leadership Event. This session can help you punch your ticket to Nationals in Nashville.
