MEN'S WEARHOUSE[®]

Student Workshops

Student members have an opportunity to participate in 12 Leadership Passport Workshops during NLC. These sessions provide valuable information that enhance your personal and professional development. Leadership Passports are available at the entrance to each workshop. Collect passport stamps by attending at least six of these workshops to earn a Certificate of Achievement.

Public Speaking & Presentation Skills

Thursday, April 27 • 8:00 to 8:50 am Marriott Marguis Ballroom – North

Learn how to communicate from the stage using stories to gain trust and connect with people and how to overcome the fear of presenting. This session will share the do's, don'ts, and myths of public speaking and how to effectively convey your message. —Michael Ivanov, SpeakLife365

Building Your Personal Brand

Thursday, April 27 • 9:00 to 9:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Learn how to use social media and other simple content creation tools to share your ideas, win people over for a cause, and build a personal brand. You will also get training on how to easily write, publish, and market your own professionally edited book and establish yourself as a thought leader. —Michael Ivanov, SpeakLife365

How to Win Friends and Influence People

Thursday, April 27 • 10:00 to 10:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Taking a page out of Dale Carnegie's classic How TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE, this workshop teaches you how to use the most effective tools in breaking down barriers, gaining trust, and winning people over. In this workshop, you will learn how to remember and use names; ask great questions and be more interested than interesting; create a comfortable personal and professional environment that allows people to open up, feel heard and seen, and become their best! —Michael Ivanov, SpeakLife365

Taking Responsibility Like a True Leader

Thursday, April 27 • 11:00 to 11:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

We all face adversities and conflicts at some point in our personal and professional lives. Learn how to have tough conversations, resolve conflicts between teammates and defuse tense situations, create an environment that allows others to make mistakes and learn from them, and handle situations that may arise in leadership positions. —Michael Ivanov, SpeakLife365

Earn a Certificate of Achievement by attending at least six Leadership Passport Workshops.

Taking Action on Your Goals

Thursday, April 27 • 1:00 to 1:50 pm Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

This workshop will prepare you to spot opportunity in adversity, set clear and specific goals, and make measurable progress towards those goals. By taking small steps, you make measurable progress, build self-confidence while gaining momentum, and put yourself on an inevitable path to success in life and business. First we crawl, then we walk, then we run, and finally we leap! —Michael Ivanov, SpeakLife365

Separating from the Crowd

Thursday, April 27 • 2:00 to 2:50 pm Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Learn the five principles for thinking and achieving beyond your boundaries. You will learn how to stand out from the crowd by discovering and using your unique skills, talents, gifts, and abilities to build your career, serve your community, and leave your mark on the world! — Michael Ivanov, Speak-Life365

How to Dress for Success

Thursday, April 27 • 3:00 to 3:50 pm Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Join Men's Wearhouse, a leader in the professional fashion industry, to learn tips and best practices on how to dress for the occasion, navigate the job search and interview process, and how to feel confident and make a lasting impression. This one isn't just for the boys. Everyone is encouraged to attend! —Jorgina Urbano, Tailored Brands

Change Maker Master Class: Applying your Leadership Skills to Advocate for the Causes You Care About

Friday, April 28 • 8:00 to 8:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Do you want to apply your leadership skills to create positive change? Learn the secret formula for advocacy and prepare to apply your leadership skills to create change around an issue or cause important to you. Whether it's traffic safety, environmental protection, anti-bullying, mental health, or another cause you are passionate about, this workshop will allow you to collaborate with fellow BPA leaders to create a ready-to-use action plan that can be implemented when you return home. —Bryan Delaney, National Transportation Safety Board

Just the Beginning

Friday, April 28 • 9:00 to 9:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

Join the 2022–2023 Executive Council for a collaborative workshop on how BPA can help you during school and beyond. The presenters will share their journeys to becoming officers and what they have planned after their terms of service. —2022–2023 BPA Executive Council

Save/Spend/Give: The Reason for Financial Wellness

Friday, April 28 • 11:00 to 11:50 am Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

As a BPA member, you've been developing valuable skills to use as a business professional of tomorrow. Learn how the 3Nickels app can help you bolster life skills related to money. This interactive session is designed to introduce you to the app and demonstrate how you can use the education, tools, and advice within to make wise financial decisions. —John Shupe, GuidedChoice/3Nickels

Finding Peace at School, the Workplace, and Home

Friday, April 28 • 1:00 to 1:50 pm

Marriott Marquis Ballroom – North

This workshop offers an inspiring introduction to mindfulness and its practical applications that can be applied to any area of your personal and professional life. Mindfulness is about being in the present moment, letting go of the overwhelming and negativity—all to bring peace, relaxation, balance, and positivity into your life. —Tonya Schumacher, BPA Alumna

MICHAEL IVANOV

OPENING SESSION KEYNOTE SPEAKER

MICHAEL IVANOV is a dynamic speaker and best-selling author who has impacted thousands of people with his message of resilience. From students to athletes to business professionals, Michael helps people from all walks of life take personal responsibility for their lives and reconnect to their purpose. Born in Kiev, Ukraine, he immigrated to the United States just before the collapse of the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War. He is the grandson of a siege of Leningrad and Dachau concentration camp survivor. Michael's masterful storytelling ability leaves audiences exhilarated and equipped to act on their inspiration. His success principles empower audiences to smash fears, limitations, and passive, excuse-oriented mindsets. He reveals how the personal choices we make, the attitudes we carry, and the principles by which we live affect our mental health and help determine the success of our lives and organizations.

Acts of Service

Commitment to service is a hallmark of engaged citizens and strong leaders. We encourage you to spend some time engaged in acts of service while at the conference. There are several opportunities to get involved.

Wednesday, April 26 • 12:00-6:00 pm

American Red Cross Blood Drive

The need for blood is constant, and blood donors are vital for a healthy and reliable blood supply. You will feel good knowing you've helped change a life. Those donating blood will be entered into a drawing for a gift certificate to the BPA on-site store. Guidelines, consent forms, and pre-registration instructions begin on page 42.

"A Million Thanks" Letters to Veterans

Write letters of thanks and support to those who have served our country. The organization A Million Thanks will send the letters to active, reserve, and veteran members of the military.

"A Smile A Day" Thank You Cards

Thank those who work behind the scenes. Whether it's the bellhop who helped with your luggage, the housekeeper who cleaned your room, or someone else who positively affected your NLC experience, write a thank you card to show your gratitude.

Thursday, April 27 • 3:00-5:00 pm

Special Olympics Chain of Love

Let's create the longest chain in BPA history! Donate $1 (online during NLC registration or on-site) per link to decorate and add to the chain that will be carried during the Special Olympics walk.

Walk for Special Olympics Posters

Support Special Olympics Walk participants by creating colorful, uplifting posters that bring energy and motivation along the route.

Friday, April 28 • 3:00-5:00 pm

Coloring Books for Kids

Add some color and a smile to a hospitalized child's day. Donate a new coloring book or help assemble coloring books that will be donated to local hospitals.

Assemble Buddy Baskets

Moving to transitional or permanent housing can be difficult for homeless veterans lacking basic household items. Chapters are asked to brings items such as bathroom tissue, rubber gloves for cleaning, dust pan with hand broom, shower curtain, bath towels, or plastic eating utensils to assemble into kits for veterans.

Walk for Special Olympics Southern California

Friday, April 28 • 7:00-8:00 am

Active Walker - $15 • Walk Supporter - $5

Since 2012 NLC attendees have raised tens of thousands of dollars for Special Olympics by participating in the annual benefit walk. You won't want to miss this fun morning walk around the Anaheim Convention Center complex. Event proceeds will be donated to Special Olympics, BPA's national service project.

By registering for the Walk for Special Olympics, participants acknowledge and accept all risks and liabilities in conjunction with the activity. Participants and assignees release, hold harmless, and indemnify Business Professionals of America and its respective agents, employees, partners, and directors from any and all liability, costs, expenses, claims and settlements for any injury, loss, or damages that may be incurred arising from participation.
