9:00am–10:00am Keynote Presentation Alonzo Kelly	Creating Work and Play Space Where Everyone Feels They Belong This holistic presentation is inclusive of the skill of Critical Thought and Crucial Conversation; Tools for Talking When the Stakes Are High. All participants will feel compelled to learn, invited to be courageous, and challenged to be humble as we explore the impact of our experiences on our ability to form truly authentic partnerships and relationships. Through intentional dialogue focused on our sense of Belonging, we are able to examine and challenge the plethora of personal and professional environments where we feel most and least likely that we belong. Participants will be able to apply their unique personality, lived experience, and acquired knowledge to Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity in ways to celebrate who we are and identify opportunities to evolve our thinking.
